

Pertti Huuskonen

Independent Director since June 2020

Since 2011, Pertti Huuskonen (1956) is an Independent Non-Executive Director in the Board of Directors of Hoivatilat (the Finnish healthcare real estate investor acquired by Aedifica in 2020), of which he was Chairman from 2011 to 2020.

In addition to his independent Board mandate at Hoivatilat, Pertti Huuskonen is CEO of Lunacon Oy since 2011, a private company that advises high-growth enterprises and invests in Finland and the Baltic countries. He is also (Non-Executive) Vice-chairman of the Board of Directors of KPY Novapolis (a private real estate development investment company) and A. Ahlstrom Real Estate (a private real estate and forest investment company).

From 1985 to 2008 Pertti Huuskonen was CEO of Technopolis Plc (at that time a Finnish listed real estate investor specialised in offices and co-working spaces), after which he served as Chairman of the Board of Directors until 2012. In 2013, he became Board Member of the Lehto Group, a listed Finnish construction company of which he was Chairman from 2014 until 2018. He also served as a Board member in the listed Estonian residential and retail property development company AS Pro Kapital Group from 2012 to 2019. Furthermore, from 2011 to 2019, Pertti Huuskonen worked as an academic adviser and lecturer at the Oulu Business School of the University of Oulu, where he has obtained a Master of Sciences in 1983 and a Master of Business Administration in 1991.
