

This policy explains what cookies are and how we use them on our website (“Cookie Policy”). It is intended to inform you about the use of cookies on this website (www.aedifica.eu). This Cookie Policy must be read together with Aedifica’s Privacy Policy.

We may amend this Cookie Policy from time to time. Important changes to our Cookie Policy in the future will be posted on this page. Please consult this Cookie Policy regularly to see any updates or changes to the Cookie Policy. Your continued use of this website following the notification of changes to this Cookie Policy will indicate your acceptance of these changes.

This Cookie Policy was most recently updated on 25 May 2018.

1. About cookies

Cookies are small data files which are downloaded to your device when you visit our website. Cookies may gather information about your use of the website or may enable us to recognise you as an existing visitor when you return to our website at a later date. Cookies allow us to recognise your device. You can find more information about cookies at <http://www.allaboutcookies.org> and <http://www.youronlinechoices.eu>.

You do not have to accept (all of) our cookies. However, if you do not accept or delete our cookies, some areas of our website may take more time to work, or may not function properly. You can find more information on how to disable and/or delete cookies in section 4 below.

2. What types of cookies are used?

In terms of duration of the cookies, we use both session and persistent cookies on our website:

- Session cookies are temporary cookies that only remain on your device until you leave our website;
- Persistent cookies are cookies that remain on your device for much longer or until you manually delete these (how long the cookie remains on your device will depend on the duration or "lifetime" of the specific cookie and your browser settings).

Cookies can also be categorised according to their function:

- necessary cookies are cookies that are essential in order to enable you to move around our website and use its features;
- functionality cookies are cookies that allow the website to remember choices you make (such as your user name, language or the region you are in) and provide enhanced, more personal or customized features;
- analytical / performance cookies are cookies that collect information about how you use our website, for example which webpages/features you go to most often. These cookies allow us to improve how the website works;
- targeting or advertising cookies are cookies that are used to deliver advertisements that are more relevant to you and your interests, based on an analysis of your browsing. However, we will not use targeting or advertising cookies on its website.

Finally, cookies can also be categorised according to the “owner” of the cookie:

- First-party cookies are cookies that are “website-owned”, installed by us on our website;
- Third-party cookies are cookies installed by domains other than those of the visited website.
