Ingrid Daerden, CFO Aedifica, is Trends CFO of the Year 2021

Yesterday, Aedifica CFO Ingrid Daerden was awarded 'Trends CFO of the Year 2021'. This award is conferred annually by the Belgian financial magazines Trends and Trends-Tendances upon the CFO who has set the tone within the Belgian financial sector in the past year.

In addition to the remarkable achievements of the nominees during the past year, a professional and independent panel of judges looked particularly at qualitative criteria, such as professional knowledge, leadership and people management qualities and the role of the CFO as a strategic partner in the company.

The panel selected Ingrid for her contribution to the strategic development and financing of Aedifica's growth. Aedifica raised over €700 million in capital markets last year. The panel recognised the integration of sustainability and ESG criteria into the financial policy, as well as Ingrid's professional and transparent attitude.

Ingrid Daerden, CFO of Aedifica, commented: "This award is a wonderful recognition of the hard work of the entire Aedifica team over the past period. In addition to the many acquisitions and financing operations, our expansion across Europe and the creation of local teams have fundamentally changed the way we work. In collaboration with the various teams, we launched SAP, insourced the accounting of the international subsidiaries and implemented a treasury management system. I am therefore very proud of the motivated finance team that, in putting its weight behind this transformation project, has formed a solid foundation for future growth at Aedifica."
