

Rikke Lykke Talchow

Independent Director

Member of Aedifica's Board of Directors since May 2025

Ms Lykke is a highly experienced professional in the European real estate sector with over 25 years of expertise.

Ms Lykke started her professional career as an analyst at McKinsey in Copenhagen and New York and at Oaklins Denmark. Subsequently, she enrolled in various significant leadership roles in the real estate business such as director of Structured Products at Proark Group, co-founder and Managing Partner at Atlas Management and Head of European Asset Management at PATRIZIA.

Until recently, she was CEO of DEAS Asset Management Group, a leading investment and asset management company in the Nordics with more than €6 billion of assets under management covering 400 properties across four countries (headquartered in Copenhagen, Denmark).

Rikke Lykke joined Aedifica's Board of Directors in May 2025 as Independent Director.